"To provide quality service to the citizens of Alpine"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 25, 2019

Public Service Recognition Week

ALPINE, TX. - May 5-11 has been designated by Congress as Public Service Recognition Week and the City of Alpine will be recognizing the immeasurable contributions made by city employees each day to improve the quality of life for the residents in Alpine, Texas.

Mayor Andres Ramos will recognize public service employees with a proclamation at the May 7th City Council meeting thanking all public service employees for their efforts and dedication. Activities for the week include an appreciation day and a luncheon.

The City of Alpine currently employs 79 persons, both full and part time, in its administration, airport, building services, finance, gas, parks, police, sanitation, sewer, streets, tourism and water departments.

Please be sure to stop and thank your public servants when you see them out and about!

FOR MORE INFORMATION, please contact Lorene Villanueva by calling (432) 837-3301 or by email at city.info@ci.alpine.tx.us.
